

Programme Outcome:

The learner will be able to acquaint about the Indo-Arabic Language and Literature and the commercial relationship between India and Arab. After completion of this programme, students will be able to acquaint themselves with the Language and Literature in Arabic along with a hold on Arabic culture, Political History of Arab, History of Islam as well as the Grammar of Arabic Language and Geography of Arab Land. It provides a little knowledge of Quran and Hadith also.

Programme Specific Outcome:

This programme focuses on different tradition of Arabic Literature in addition with detail of the currents and crosscurrents of social, economic and political changes from time to time. After completion of this programme, students may enroll themselves For PG in Arabic Language and Literature or in Oriental studies too.